You Can't Take It With You (Youth Play) - July 25-27, August 1-3

AUDITIONS 6/16 & 6/17

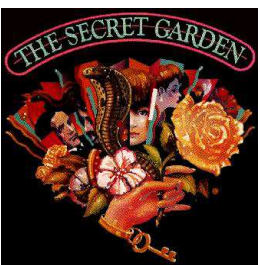

At first the Sycamores seem mad, but it is not long before we realize that if they are mad, the rest of the world is madder. This classic comedy is one of the most successful and popular of modern times, featuring a wild cast of characters including an ex-duchess, a firework enthusiast, and a tax-evading grandpa. Alice Sycamore is courted by the eligible bachelor Tony Kirby, but when their families meet, disaster and hilarity ensue.

The Secret Garden - September 19-21, 26-28

AUDITIONS 7/28 & 7/29

The Secret Garden is the Tony Award-winning musical adaptation of Frances Hodgson Burnett's classic novel of the same name. Mary Lennox, a young English girl born and raised in the British Raj, is orphaned by a cholera outbreak. She is sent away from India to Yorkshire, England, to live with relatives whom she has never met. Her own personality blossoms as she and a young gardener bring new life to a neglected garden, as well as to her sickly cousin and uncle. This show is open to actors of all ages and heavily features two child actors, one female and one male.

The Nerd - November 7-9, 14-16

AUDITIONS 9/22 & 9/23

Willum Cubbert has often told his friends about the debt he owes to Rick Steadman, a fellow ex-GI whom he has never met but who saved his life in Vietnam. When Rick shows up unexpectedly at his apartment, it becomes apparent that Rick is a hopeless "nerd"—a bumbling oaf with no social sense, little intelligence and less tact. His continued presence leads to one uproarious incident after another, until the normally placid Willum finds himself contemplating violence—a dire development which is staved off by a surprising twist.
